

THE TOWN'S PEOPLE

Edward W. Center and Helen

When the rollicking strains and biting lyrics of a beloved Gilbert and Sullivan production roll out anywhere in New England, it's a ten to one chance that Edward W. Center is around somewhere. "Ed" is one of those many-faceted persons who has mastered his versatility. In high school he organized his own orchestra. Later on as a college student, he paid his tuition by playing piano and organ for the silent movies. Anyone who remembers the days when the pianist provided the complete sound effects for these "flicker" epics can appreciate the technique and talent necessary for this arduous stint. Luckily, he has not forgotten his less classical piano pounding of Hearts and Flowers and Western hoofbeats and his many fans delight in his repeat performances of "Hair Trigger Casey."

Following in the footsteps of his father, the late Professor Harry B. Center, head of the Department of Journalism at Boston University, son Edward graduated from B. U. with the degree of B. J., and also joined the hundreds of ardent Gilbert and Sullivan boosters. Professor Center, who had been on the Boston Post for over 25 years previous to his teaching career, was a G. & S. authority. He founded what is now the Boston University Gilbert and Sullivan Association and the shows became his major hobby.

Harris Denies He Will Withdraw from Contest

George A. Harris, 196 Cedar avenue, candidate for the Board of Public Works, has issued a statement to the press.

He states, "It has come to me that certain individuals are promoting the rumor that I intend to withdraw from the contest for Board of Public Works. This is not true. Furthermore, I am not in the race as a stalking horse for any other candidate."

"Only some unforeseeable reason could force me out. Those who know my record, know that I have never shirked a civic duty. I am sure that my record, and qualifications, stand out."

"I stand for good government, efficiency of operation and fair play to all. I advocate a comprehensive study of the Public Works Department which will eventually demonstrate savings by efficiency and economy. I urge some merging of functions with other departments, thus eliminating duplication of work-effort; I shall oppose the private interests of the few and do honest work for the tax-payers. I further advocate open Board meetings as the occasion warrants and regular release of news of operations to the effect that the Town, its residents and taxpayers be fully informed."

"The Town needs a change from the stagnated conditions of today. I promise a new and vigorous approach to the situation that will react to keep down the tax rate. I further promise to voice my convictions rather than keep silent."

Mr. Harris is a long time Town Meeting member and a Boston newspaperman. He is prominent in the Arlington Citizens' Committee.

Miss Sandler Soloist In P. T. A. Concert

Carolee Sandler, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Sandler of Bartlett avenue, is to be soloist in the Grieg Piano Concerto in A Minor with the Arlington Philharmonic Orchestra, Leo Litwin, conductor. Carolee studies piano with Miss Esther Stanley Hewes of Somerville. She played in her first concert at the age of six and has been performing for the public ever since. Carolee is fifteen and a sophomore at Arlington High School where she is pianist for the orchestra.

The Grieg Concerto is part of a varied concert to be given by the Philharmonic Society of Arlington, Inc., under the sponsorship of the Arlington Parent-Teacher Associations Council. This concert is the second in the Council's Fine Arts Program for young people of Arlington.

There will be two performances of the Philharmonic Concert, one on February 8th at 3 p.m. for grades four through six, and one on February 15th for grades seven through twelve.

Both the P. T. A. Council and the Philharmonic Society are happy not only to present an interesting program for the young people of Arlington, but also to sponsor such a promising young artist as Miss Sandler.

James G. Keith, 48, of 72 Harlow street, was the hero once again of a lost and found story this week, proving that he is one of the most honest men the press of Greater Boston has had the honor to write about yet.

Late Sunday night, Keith was engaged by a pretty Senorita newly arrived from El Salvador, to drive her from Harvard Square to the home of her brother-in-law on Alpine street, Cambridge. Two hours later after the girl had made a frantic search for a valuable alligator handbag, with even more valuable contents—$800, passports, and return plane ticket, "Honest Jimmy" returned the bag to its excited owner. He had found it on the floor of his cab but could not explain how his other passengers missed seeing it. He recalled where he had driven his young lady passenger, Carmen G. Prieto Arguello, 23 daughter of Chief Justice Arturo Arguello of the El Salvador Supreme Court, and gave the astonishing find to her. Miss Prieto's host is Dr. Hector Silva, her brother-in-law, who is El Salvador Consul in Boston, and he and Miss Prieto were profuse in their appreciation for Keith's honesty.

Just recently the cab driver found and returned more than $1000 to a Back Bay woman hours after she had left the money on the seat of his cab. However, he cheerfully admits that so far his honesty has not resulted in the Golden Rule being applied to him in return, since he has been the victim of several hold-ups.

BLOOD DONATION MEETING

Representatives of all Arlington charities and clubs are invited to attend a meeting in Robbins Junior Library Hall next Tuesday evening, February 3rd, at 8:00 o'clock, in connection with the Arlington visit March 15 and 16 of the Red Cross Mobile Blood Donation Unit. Miss Blair of the Boston Metropolitan Chapter and Mr. Benson of the Massachusetts State Department of Health will be the speakers.

—On Saturday evening a group of friends braved the snowstorm and gathered to celebrate the birthdays of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wood and W. Parker Wood at the home of the Leonard Woods. Guests included Mrs. Parker Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. #### MARCH OF DIMES ENDS TOMORROW

Committee Urges Aid to Reach Local Goal.

The 1948 Arlington March of Dimes drive which has been in progress since January 15 comes to an end tomorrow as the national campaign draws to its close. In urging all those who have not already made their contributions to this wonderful cause to do so, William J. Sinclair, Campaign Chairman, reminds them that "it is never too late". Contributions may be left at any of the banks in Arlington, or mailed to them, as well as to the local committee. Chairman Sinclair also reminds all of those who received the dime banks through the mail to fill them and return them to the committee. Nearly 11,000 of these banks were mailed out to residents last week and the returns have been very slow. The local drive is under the sponsorship of the Arlington Auxiliary Police Association, Inc., directors of the Arlington Youth Activities, Town Committee Chairman W. Dale Barker and the members of his group have been hard at work since last fall on this annual campaign. The goal for Arlington is $7500—help put it over the top with YOUR dimes!

Town Clerk Releases List Of Candidates For Town Offices

NEW ADVOCATE FEATURE

That Man About Town

By MAT

Hello Readers!

Yes, we'll be with you weekly with Town Topics from the inside; all the best rumors; political news; social news; even 'nosey' gossip.

Which reminds us that we'll need your help. Be a reporter and drop us a line (no phone calls) when you see or hear an item of interest. We'll be glad to use it. You must sign your name and address but they will not be used unless authorized by the contributor.

We heard this week that an article will be placed in the warrant to erect a suitable memorial to Commander John Joseph Shea, Arlington's World War II Navy hero. It may be placed at the junction of Warren Street and Broadway on Park Department land.

The coming Town election is beginning to steam up. All kinds of rumors are afloat. Every major office, except Town Clerk and Town Treasurer, has a variety of candidates vying for the votes.

The picture will be clearer after February 3, final date for withdrawals. The only office wherein interest seems lacking is that of Town Meeting member. This is too bad, for it is these office holders who vote all appropriations and set the tax rate. The Arlington Citizens' Committee is well aware of this and has already set up a committee, headed by Chairman John H. Greim, to look into the qualifications of candidates in each precinct. It is assumed that the Committee will publicly endorse qualified candidates before election day, March 1.

We doubt if anybody who has not been one himself can appreciate the feelings of a defeated candidate. The loser may appear to laugh it off and he may display great equanimity, but being beaten hurts and don't think it doesn't. Seeking office is serious business for most candidates and they would not be in there if they did not think they had a chance to win. Before election all the candidate hears is favorable news. His friends speak their support. And it all sounds rosy because the other side is not yet heard from. It is often a great shock to his self esteem when a candidate who has worked hard gets his first look at the totals piled up against him. And so our best wishes to the loser. Let us reflect that, because of the test to which he has been subjected the winner, we are all better off. They also serve who only stand and wait—for a better day.

According to some, Arlington is due for 27 more storms—and we're like you—beyond caring.

Should be a well attended meeting next Monday night when the Citizens' Committee endorses for town offices. At least all the politicians and candidates will be present. We hear that the

Nicky Marafino, Jr. And the 130 Dimes

Eleven-year-old Nicholas Marafino, Jr., of 49 Trowbridge street is one youngster who has done his share to help put the "March of Dimes" drive over the top. Nick had a broken leg once himself that kept him from playing baseball with the other boys, and he knows that a paralyzed leg could handicap a person for life.

So he decided to do something about it this year. On Sunday the 19th of January, despite a howling snowstorm, young Nicholas knocked at every door on Trowbridge st. in East Arlington and collected thirteen dollars that he turned over to the fund to wipe out infantile paralysis.

Nicky is a fifth grade pupil at the Crosby School where he is an honor student. He likes to play football and baseball, read magazines and his favorite radio programs are "Truth or Consequences" and "Life of Riley."

THE LOCKED DOORS

A Connecticut pastor, Rev. Alvin D. Johnson, says that the severe winter has produced a new ailment which he calls "Snow-vitis"—the symptoms, staying away from church service. We'll take over from there and voice the astonished protest of people who want to go to church but can't—because there is no church service. Have you been hearing the radio announcers intone over and over, the last few weeks, "There will be no church services today at —," etc., and listing various churches?

What is happening? Since when does worship stop for snow? Since when does a House of God close its doors, like a primary school on a bad day and send out a signal warning to its members not to attend? The doors of a church should always be open—and it's a long time between Sundays. There are those who always go to church despite storms or anything else. If one can get through, so can everyone. Satan will never wield a snowshovel to help them get there.

The beauty and refuge of God's House is never more evident in its quiet welcome than to the storm-tossed human seeking sanctuary within its doors. This tendency to dismiss church services should be discouraged before it is too late. Pretty soon they'll be cancelling church because of the heat—a parade—or any convenient excuse, and the locked doors will stand mute against mortal storms as well.

"SPEAK TO OUR HEARTS"

By DAVID G. COLWELL

Minister of the Pleasant Street Congregational Church

"O God, speak to our hearts when men faint for fear, and the love of many grows cold, and there is distress of the nations upon earth." These lines come from a Prayer which is in the Book of Common Worship of the Presbyterian Church; it appeared originally in a slightly different form in the Free Church Book of Prayers. I know not the author, but I would that I did for he has got hold of something in these few words that goes straight to the heart of man living in our fumbling world.

"When men faint for fear" indeed, we are now caught up in a wave of fear that has seldom been paralleled, at least not in recent history. We fear the Bomb, we fear Russia, we fear Communism, we fear the great unknown beyond our scientific frontiers, and we fear our fear. Tragic it is that this people is becoming slightly hysterical from its fear.

"When the love of many grows cold"; indeed, how difficult it is to love even those with whom we are agreed—even those with whom we share a common tradition and background. There is so little love abroad in this weary world; and how cold that little love is growing.

"When there is distress of the nations upon earth"; indeed, will anyone deny the depth and magnitude of this distress?

We have these problems, and we have in some measure faced them. We have called upon the good that lies buried in man, and, through the fine art of self-persuasion and moral uplift, we have attempted to fight the fear, to warm the love, and to turn the distress into happiness or at least harmony. But even the most optimistic among us can scarce claim success. We have spoken to our hearts, but have found no saving power coming forth in response to our anguished demands.

But the prayer says: "O God, speak to our hearts". Aye, and here lies the answer for it is God and God alone that can put such power into the heart of man that he can control his fear and make it a constructive rather than a destructive force. It is God and God alone that can speak to the heart of man with such compelling understanding that his love can become warm, untiring, searching—a vital force that knows no barriers or boundaries. It is God and God alone who can rule the passions of men in such wise that the distress of the nations upon earth can become harmony and good will.

Man need not be doomed to eternal wandering; man need not be so puffed up in pride of his strength that he calls upon a God made in his own image. Man need not forever "look for peace and find only a sword". Man need only recognize his dependence as a creature upon his Creator, and "watch and pray".

"O God, speak to our hearts when men faint for fear, and the love of many grows cold, and there is distress of the nations upon earth. Keep us resolute and steadfast in the things that cannot be shaken, abounding in hope and knowing that our labour is not in vain in thee. Restore our faith in the omnipotence of good; renew the love which never faileth; and make us to lift up our eyes and behold, beyond the things which are seen and temporal, the things which are unseen and eternal. Amen."

Miss Marcella Lynch of Appleton street, a girl of 16 or more, had a narrow escape from drowning Tuesday night while skating in the reservoir. She was struggling in the water when a tall man unknown to her was able to reach her at great risk to himself.

IN 1923

25 Years Ago This Week

A group of 15 young people of East Arlington formed a theatre party and enjoyed "Lightnin'" at the Hollis Street Theatre, Boston, on Monday, January 22.

The January meeting of the Arlington Men's Club, a non-political and non-sectarian social group, was held with a large increase in membership noted. At the conclusion of the banquet Carl H. Carroll, with Mr. H. Stanley Marsh, organist, led the guests in singing. President Dickinson introduced Mr. Robert Burns of the Burns Detective Bureau, the speaker of the evening.

On Monday morning, at the recess period, milk was served to pupils in the lower grades of Arlington Schools, through the cooperation of the Arlington School Committee and the Board of Health. 1160 children brought money to pay for their milk, which, with crackers, costs each child five cents.

A pretty surprise party and shower were given Miss Louise Marshall, daughter of Mrs. Grace Marshall, at her home, 55 Tanager street, in anticipation of her approaching marriage to Edward B. Potter of Crescent Hill avenue, Arlington Heights. Miss Alice Terrell was the leader of the surprise. Her comrades were Alta Dares, Ruth Hadlock, Katherine Shine, Jane Perkins, Flora Fowles, Violet Pelrine, Rachel and Ruth Potter, Ruth France, Mrs. O. E. Bennett, Grace and Charlotte Bennett, Mrs. Alice Danskin and Marion and Margaret Danskin.

Chief Gives Safety Tips for Winter Driving

"Outsmart Old Man Winter by quit s-kidding yourself," Chief of Police Archie F. Bullock advised today. "The life you save may be your own."

It is simply necessary to give serious consideration to the fundamental rules for safe driving under adverse weather and road conditions," he said, and offered the following expert tips:

1. Get the "feel" of the road.
2. Adjust speed to conditions.
3. Use tire chains on snow and ice.
4. Keep windshield-wipers clear of snow, ice, fog and frost.
5. Slow down well in advance of intersections and curves.
6. Follow other vehicles at safe distances.
7. Signal intentions of turning or stopping.

"If all car, truck and cab drivers will really obey these fundamental winter driving rules, we'll have fewer accidents and traffic tieups," he said. "And they will save money and trouble."

"The nation's mileage death rate is greatest during snow and icy months," the chief declared. "The two major factors that cause this are poor traction and reduced visibility. These facts have been substantiated by research by the National Safety Council and the rules are recommended by state officials and the International Association of Chiefs of Police."

Special studies and tests conducted by the NSC's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards have shown that skidding is the greatest danger faced by motorists. Tests show that it takes a car without chains, traveling only 20 mph, 70 to 80 feet to stop on packed snow. This is about four times the braking distance on dry concrete at the same speed. "Even more hazardous is stopping on ice," Chief Bullock added. "A car traveling 20 mph

So She Has

Mother and little Emily were talking about the new baby. "Baby's name is Joseph, like daddy's," mother told her. "Your sister Helen's name is like Auntie Helen's. You are named after Grandma."

"What?" said Emily in astonishment. "Has Grandma got a name?"

without chains may skid from 170 to well over 200 feet. Fire chains on rear wheels consistently reduce this to about 80 feet. They also prevent stalling and traffic tieups. "My advice is for drivers to use anti-skid chains during severe conditions of snow and ice," he warned. "This doesn't mean driving every light snowfall. Use your head. The life you save may be your own."

As for poor visibility, the chief pointed out the importance of properly working windshield wipers, defrosters and correctly aimed headlights. "If a person can see clearly and stop, that helps a lot," he said.

Friends of Mrs. Ann M. Myatt, the former Ann Crocco, will be sorry to hear that she is a patient at the Massachusetts Memorial Hospital where she will undergo an operation. Mrs. Myatt was well known as president of the Arlington Servicemen's club and as a salesgirl in W. T. Grants in Arlington Center.

A Hubster's Leap Year Dance, sponsored by Boston Y.W.C.A.'s Business and Industrial Department, will be held Friday, February 6, in Lee Auditorium, 140 Clarendon street, Boston. Chairman of the dance is Dick Barstow, 515 Pondview road, Arlington. His committee includes Marie DeSantis, 111 Eastern avenue and Alice Barry, 275 Park avenue, both of Arlington.

John J. Casey, Jr., formerly of Bartlett avenue, now engineering field representative for American Airlines, New York, was co-author with R. Dixon Speas, assistant to the vice-president of engineering, of a paper read at the recent conference of the Society of Automotive Engineers in Kansas City. The paper was entitled "Cargo Aircraft Requirements". Mr. and Mrs. Casey and their son, John J. III have just spent a week-end visiting in Arlington.

UNIVERSITY THEATRE
Faithfully following the original book, "Green Dolphin Street" comes to the screen as a magnificently tender and emotional story of love and high adventure in a past century. Astute direction and sensitive character portrayals are combined with the finest production values. The musical score is tremendous, now catching harsh music of the sea mingled with the sound of the convent bell, now beating out the sound of the Maori drums and native phantas. There is life and beauty to this story; the tenderness and closeness of family ties, and the peacefulness which comes from the majesty of true religion. The result is a well-blended whole that makes for exceptionally fine entertainment.

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the management announces "Out of the Blue", a whacky type comedy starring George Brent, Virginia Mayo and Ann Dvorak, and "Thunder in the Valley", adapted from the novel by Alfred Ollivant. An appealing homespun drama of Scottish sheep herders and their wonderfully trained dogs into which is woven a tender love story beautifully photographed in Technicolor with scene after scene unfolding breathtaking beauty and artistry.

Miss Jean Hanlon, 19, of 432a Massachusetts avenue, will leave Sunday for St. Catherine, Kentucky, where she will enter the Dominican Novitiate. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hanlon, she is a graduate of St. Agnes' School, and Mount Trinity Academy, Watertown.

Town Topic
—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kelley left last Saturday for a month's vacation in Florida. A send-off party was given for Mrs. Kelley by her bridge club last week at the home of Mrs. Arthur Cook on Orchard terrace. Mrs. Kelley was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Those present were Mrs. Allan Galpin, Mrs. Richard Powers, Mrs. George Dolan, Mrs. Warren Ryan, Mrs. William Hyland, Mrs. George Cronin and Mrs. Frank Dorsey.

Answers to TEST YOUR I. Q.

1. Fragrance, acidity, burniness, apyricness (the distinctive odor of animals when wet).
2. A place called The Rock where the Ark of the Covenant once rested, where the Jewish "Wailing Wall," said to be a remnant of Solomon's Temple, now stands, and where Moslems believe Allah lifted up Mohammed or a visit to Islamic heaven. The Mosque of Omar stands on The Rock today.
3. From a medieval German custom: the husband gave his wife silver wreath when she had lived with him 25 years, a gold wreath at 50 years, to symbolize harmony.
4. Scholars differ, but it is generally believed he spoke the Galilean dialect of Aramaic. Aramaic was the spoken language of the common people. It bore to Hebrew somewhat the same relation that modern Yiddish bears today. Other languages spoken in Palestine at the time were Hebrew, Latin, Greek.
5. Dry sand, because water fills around wet sand, thus preventing the grains from flowing together as compactly as when dry.

TOWN'S PEOPLE

Advertising Manager of the First National Stores is equally exciting to him. He has been able to utilize both his newspaper training and his football background to advantage in the various publicity and radio campaigns for the First National Stores. Right now he is particularly engrossed in a new show they are sponsoring for children on WBMS on Saturdays. It's called "Six or Under", and features records for children and he can count on plenty of expert opinions from the Center children, who range from four to 13 years. Another of the vital interests of this polished gentleman is his position as organist and choir director at the Park Avenue Congregational Church—a job he has filled with evident enjoyment for six years.

—The Phi Epsilon Chi of the Heights Baptist Church will meet next Monday at the home of Mrs. Richards on Ronald road.

FINAL LECTURE OF
CHRISTIAN INSTITUTE

Sunday Vesper Service to Conclude Series Sponsored by Two Churches.

The final lecture on an Institute on Christian Relations, sponsored by the Pleasant Street Congregational Church and Saint John's Episcopal Church, was held Tuesday evening in the vestry of the first named sponsor. Well over a hundred were attentive listeners to Rev. Herman Reissig of New York, who in briefly reviewing past revolutions found us once more in a World revolution and asked, "Where is the power that can pull this warring world together?" Obviously, he found the answer in a realized religion. He went on to say that education can do it, say one; but facts are not enough. Science, too, has failed. No one group is more scared today than the scientists. International Trade will do it, say others, but only hate and envy is the result here. Surely the International Wood.

The lecture was preceded by a delicious supper served by Mesdames Herbert Rhodes, chairman; Albert H. Perkins, Clarence Brown, Stuart MacDonald, Arlan Keller, Earl S. Clark, only hate and envy is the result here. Surely the International Wood.

ARLINGTON QUINTET TROUNCES
WATERTOWN AND WOBURN

Home from Japan

George "Bud" Faulkner, Arlington High's great football captain of 1945 is home again after serving with the occupation forces in Japan where he was a member of the famous 24th Division.

Recently discharged from the Army, at Seattle, Washington, young George plans to enter one of the New England colleges in the fall.

While at AHS Faulkner starred in basketball, baseball and track as well as football and was one of the few five-letter athletes to ever come out of the high school.

He kept up his athletic interest in the service and played with the Army football and baseball teams in Japan.

"Bud" is nineteen years old and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Faulkner of 49 Pine street in Arlington.

ARLINGTON GIRLS' CLUB

Mr. Harold J. Tarjant, Director of the Mansfield Beauty Academies, Inc., of Boston, was the speaker at the Arlington Girls' Club on Thursday.

He stressed the importance of good grooming and said that no amount of make-up or creams could take the place of soap and water for teen-agers in the care of the skin. The members were completely absorbed in Mr. Tarjant's talk and were intrigued by his demonstrations of dry-comb hair-dos, which completed his talk.

Dressmaking classes have started under the guidance of Mrs. Walter Chamberlain and Mrs. Louis Caviche. Several of the members have already cut out dresses which will be worn at the Fashion Show which the club members will hold this coming spring. Sewing classes are held the alternate Mondays from the Thursday club meeting.

The next club meeting, February 5th, will be craft-making. Shell work, dower making and clay ceramics will be taught. Mrs. Charles Shedd will instruct the girls in clay modeling.

The tables were set up by Mesdames Earl S. Lewis, Emery West, Everett P. Cobb, William Hadley and Miss Mildred Sullivan. At the head table sat the two ministers, Mr. Reissig, Harold Yeames, Mrs. Russell T. Hamlet, Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. Warren N. Bixby of the Church of Our Saviour.

The concluding event of the Institute will be the Vesper Service to be held on Sunday, February 1, at 4:30 p. m. at the Pleasant Street Congregational Church, conducted by Rev. Halsey I. Andrews of St. John's and Rev. David G. Colwell of the host church.

After climbing back into second place in the Suburban League by knocking off Watertown, 50-38, George Fesco's Arlington High quintet went up to Woburn on Tuesday afternoon for a non-league game and came home with a 36-26 win.

At Watertown, Bill Stephens, the fangy center, was hot and tossed in 20 points while his teammates Dick Preston and Whitby Da Rosa, were good for 10 apiece.

In the non-league game at Woburn, the locals got off to a slow start and were trailing at the end of the first period. But they got going in the second canto and poured it on in the final half to win by ten points. Stephens again was the top point-gatherer with 14, while Da Rosa was the runner-up with 8 markers.

Rolling the Hoop—Although this is Coach George Fesco's third year at the helm of the basketball team, it is his first since the end of the war. Tomorrow night (Friday) the Arlington five will travel over to Brookline to meet the cellar dwelling and still winless Wealthy Towers. And on next Tuesday they will be on an enemy court again at Cambridge Latin.

Winchester C. C. Elects
Officers for 1948

The annual meeting of the Winchester Country Club was held Tuesday evening. The meeting was preceded by a dinner. About one hundred members attended, to discuss three important matters on the agenda—raising the dues about 25%; the budget for 1948, and the election of officers.

The secretary cast one ballot for the following officers: President, Ralph H. Bonnell; Vice-President, Allen Frank Howard; Treasurer, Raymond A. Holdsworth; Secretary, Herman F. Pike; Directors, Karl W. Baker and David A. Wilcox.

As recommended by the Board of Directors, the members voted about a 25% increase in membership for all classifications. It was observed that in spite of rising costs, the club had not raised its dues since 1937. It is hoped that the increase will obviate any assessment this year.

Local Kitten Purrs
Over Boston Show Honors

A beautiful Blue Persian kitten, exhibited by its owner, Mrs. Mabel Lafayette, 191 Cedar avenue, "catnapped" highest honors at the Boston Cat Show last Wednesday afternoon at Horticultural Hall. The pedigreed kitten, bred and raised by Mrs. Lafayette, is only five months old and on its way to being an outstanding champion. Mrs. Lafayette, wife of Dr. Theodore Lafayette, a dentist, whose practice is in Watertown, has had four other champion cats and three double champions, and has exhibited at shows throughout the United States. The name of the valuable kitten is rather long for the average cat owner—it's "Rosegate's Sunny Boy."

but for a nice piece of liver or a tender morsel of fish you can call him just plain Kitty.

BRAWL MARS ARLINGTON WIN
OVER NEWTON AT ARENA

Locals Get Play-Off Berth. Face Belmont at Garden This Week.

An illegal board check in the third period of the Arlington-Newton game touched off a fight that developed into one of the worst brawls in GBI League history as the local ice men downed Newton, 3-1, last Saturday at the Boston Arena and assured themselves of a top set berth for the playoffs starting this Saturday at the Garden.

After a wild five minutes of rioting at the Arlington end, referees Herb Gallagher and Bill Cleary, with the help of Arena police, brought the melee to some semblance of order and handed out match penalties to three Newton and two Arlington players, that will keep them cooling their heels for this week's games. Tom Kelley and Joe Shea of Arlington, plus Phil Jepson, Bill Fitzpatrick and Phil Voner of Newton are the quick-tempered lads who will be watching the games this week from the Garden's spectator sections.

The game itself was another Bill Leary show, as the little ex-winger, converted this year into a defenseman, scored one goal and assisted on the other two by Ed Emery to have a hand in all the locals' scoring.

After a scoreless first period, Leary put the Burnsmen in the lead at 8:12 of the middle stanza when he soloed to beat the Newton goalie with a hard shot to the upper corner of the net. Newton's high-scoring center, Danny Keefe, tied up the game in the opening minutes of the final period, but Ed Emery converted a Leary pass at the midway mark to send the Red and Gray ahead again. Two minutes later the same duo combined for another goal to clinch the outcome. Then came the deluge.

SCRAPING THE ICE

Arlington is now tied for third place in the GBI standings with Stoneham, three points behind second place Belmont, and five points off pace-setting Medford. This Saturday afternoon the first round of the playoffs will get underway. The top four teams will play each other for the next three Saturdays to decide the GBI title winner, while the bottom four engage each other for the exercise. The playoff game pairings were drawn last Monday at a meeting of the coaches at the office of Lewis "Polly" Harris, the Arlington drew a tough opponent in Belmont who was unbeaten until last week's game with Medford. The Belmont-Arlington game has second ice at the Garden and should start around 12:45. Medford will take on Stoneham in the first game at 12:30.

LEE'S TEXACO STATION HAS FIRST ANNIVERSARY AT ARLINGTON LOCATION

The Lee Brothers, Frank and Joe, recently celebrated the first anniversary of their Texaco Station at 264 Massachusetts avenue where, in a little over a year of doing business they have built up a satisfied following of over 300 regular customers.

However, the Lees are not new Texaco men or to the filling station business, either, for they operated a similar station in Boston for 15 years before moving to Arlington.

In addition to their complete lubricating and fueling service, their Texaco Station provides expert ignition work, free parking space for their customers and are always "the first station open" after our now almost daily snowstorms.

Included among their regular customers is the entire truck fleet of the Buckley Milk Co.

Both brothers are Navy vets, married, with children, and now make their home on Osborne rd. in Arlington.

It was on January 13, 1946, a lucky 13 for both Arlington and the Lee Brothers, that they opened at their present location, after running their Boston Texaco Station since 1926. They do not own the station outright but operate it on a lease arrangement with the Texas Company. They are open seven days a week from 7:00 in the morning to 11:00 at night.

As a service to the community, despite the numerous blizzards,

Chairman of the morning session was Clifford R. Hall, superintendent of Schools in Arlington; and Miss Alice B. Beal, supervisor of Elementary Education in the State Department, conducted the afternoon session. Miss Katherine T. Gregory, supervisor of Elementary Education in Arlington, was in charge of all arrangements for the entire program; with the able assistance of the principals of the Elementary Schools: Miss Ethel
